

Appendices A to O

New Mexico has 33 counties that group into 14 judicial districts. The information in Appendices A-O provides county level data for key topics found in the main body of this report. Information by referral type (delinquent referrals, status referrals, and probation violations) are provided for gender, race/ethnicity, age, action taken/disposition, and top offenses. In addition, there is information on disproportionate minority contact, MIP/DWI offenses, commitments to juvenile facilities, case processing time, and JPO workload. The county profiles are grouped by district number.

The following table provides a breakdown of referrals by referral type, that occurred in New Mexico during FY15:

Number of clients with a referral vs. the number of referrals, by referral type, New Mexico, FY15

Referral type*	Unduplicated clients (N)	%	Referrals (N)	%
Delinquent referrals	8,648	77.2%	11,086	78.6%
Status (non-delinquent)	1,717	15.3%	1,901	13.5%
Probation violation referrals	842	7.5%	1,115	7.9%
Total	11,207	100.0%	14,102	100.0%

*Total accrued offenses in FY15 was 21,526

Keeping in mind that a client may have had multiple offenses per referral, the total accrued offenses in FY15 was 21,526. The most serious charge determined if a referral proceeded as delinquent, status, or probation violation. Overall, there were 11,207 unduplicated clients with 14,102 referrals in FY15. For example, John Doe had two referrals on different dates within FY15; one was a delinquent referral and the other was a probation violation.

In FY15, 231 clients received more than one referral of the same referral type in more than one county. For example, Jane Smith had two delinquent referrals on different dates in the counties of Bernalillo and Taos.

Small numbers for events by race/ethnicity were combined and presented as “Other” in counties with small populations to protect the confidentiality of youth.

The reader is encouraged to refer back to key sections of this report for clarification and assistance on definitions and methodologies used to analyze the data.
