NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification¹ that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the employment, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.²

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks>.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)

² See 5 U.S.C. 552a(b); 28 U.S.C. 534(b); 42 U.S.C. 14616, Article IV(c); 28 CFR 20.21(c), 20.33(d) and 906.2(d).

Disposition Request Information Sheet

ECECD is requesting disposition because some types of convictions can result in denial of a background check clearance. Disposition means outcome. ECECD wants to know the final outcome of the arrest.

Where to find disposition

Disposition can often be found at the courts in the county where you were arrested. You can also contact the agency that arrested you, or contact the attorney who represented you, if you had one.

Phone numbers for the Courts, Police Departments, and Attorneys can generally be found in the phone book, in the Government and/or Yellow pages. Out of state information might be found on the internet.

Acceptable forms of disposition

Dispositional information can be found in documents called:

- ✓ Judgment and Sentence
- ✓ Plea and Disposition Agreement
- ✓ Nolle Prosequi
- ✓ Certificate of Conviction

If you are unsure which of the forms contains your disposition, ask the Court clerk for help.

We will not accept

- ☒ Clerk's Certificates marked "No Felony Convictions"
- ☒ Documentation from the arresting agency marked "No Record Found"
- ☒ An explanation of the arrest from your attorney.

Please call our office at (505) 827-9910 if you have any questions.

Disposition must be received no later than 15 days after the date of the request. It is your responsibility to provide this information to ECECD. This sheet is for informational purposes only. Your search for disposition should not be limited to the ideas presented here.

[8.9.6.1 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

[8.9.6.5 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

8.9.6.6 OBJECTIVE:

- A. The purpose of these regulations is to set out general provisions regarding background checks and employment history verification required in settings to which these regulations apply.
- B. Background checks are conducted in order to identify information in applicants’ backgrounds bearing on whether they are eligible to provide services in settings to which these regulations apply.
- C. Abuse and neglect screens of databases in New Mexico are conducted by BCU staff in order to identify those persons who pose a continuing threat of abuse or neglect to care recipients in settings to which these regulations apply. Applicants required to obtain background checks pursuant to 8.9.4 NMAC and 8.9.5 NMAC will also undergo a screen of abuse and neglect information and an inter-state criminal history check in each State where the applicant resided during the preceding five years.

[8.9.6.9 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

8.9.6.10 COMPLIANCE:

A. Compliance with these regulations is a condition of licensure, registration, certification or renewal, or continuation of same or participation in any other program or contract within the scope of these regulations.

B. The licensee is required to:

(1) submit an electronic fingerprint submission receipt and the required forms for all direct providers of care, household members in licensed and registered child care homes, or any staff member, employee, or volunteer present while care recipients are present, or other adult as required by the applicable regulations prior to the commencement of service, whether employment or, contractual, or volunteer. However, in the case of a registered family child care food-only home, all household members are only required to undergo a criminal history and child abuse and neglect screening.

(2) Applicants required to obtain background checks pursuant to 8.9.4 NMAC and 8.9.5 NMAC must indicate states where they resided during the preceding five years and obtain the following:

(a) a screen of abuse and neglect information in each state where the applicant resided during the preceding five years; and

(b) an inter-state criminal history check in each state where a new applicant resided during the preceding five years. An inter-state criminal history check is not required if a new applicant has resided in a state that participates in the federal bureau of investigation's national fingerprint file. All existing staff hired after October 1, 2016, must undergo an inter-state criminal history check in each state where the applicant resided during the preceding five years at the time of application. An inter-state criminal history check is not required if an applicant has resided in a state that participates in the federal bureau of investigation's national fingerprint file.

(3) Verify the employment history of any prospective direct provider of care by contacting references and prior employers/agencies to elicit information regarding the reason for leaving prior employment or service; the verification shall be documented and available for review by the licensing authority; EXCEPTION: verification of employment history is not required for registered home providers or child care homes licensed for six or fewer children.

(4) submit an adult household member written statement form for each adult household member in a registered family child care food-only home setting in order to conduct criminal history and child abuse and neglect screens on such household members; an adult household member is an adult living in the household or an adult that spends a significant amount of time in the home; the licensee must submit the required forms for new adult household members pursuant to 8.9.5 NMAC.

(5) provide such other information BCU staff determines to be necessary; and

(6) maintain documentation of all applications, correspondence and eligibility relating to the background checks required; in the event that the licensee does not have a copy of an applicant's eligibility documentation and upon receipt of a written request for a copy, the BCU may issue duplicate eligibility documentation to the original licensee provided that the request for duplicate eligibility documentation is made within one year of the applicant's eligibility date.

C. If there is a need for any further information from an applicant at any stage of the process, the BCU shall request the information in writing from the applicant. If the BCU does not receive the requested information within fifteen calendar days of the date of the request, the BCU shall deny the application and send a notice of background check denial.

D. Any person who knowingly makes a materially false statement in connection with these requirements will be denied eligibility.

[8.9.6.10 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

8.9.6.11 COMPLIANCE EXCEPTIONS:

A. An applicant may not begin providing services prior to obtaining background check eligibility unless all of the following requirements are met:

(1) the ECECD licensee may not be operating under a corrective action plan (childcare), sanctions, or other form of disciplinary action;

(2) the licensee or applicant shall send the BCU a completed application form and an electronic fingerprint submission receipt prior to employment;

(3) until receiving background eligibility, the applicant shall at all times be under direct physical supervision. See next paragraph for standards regarding applicants required to obtain a background check pursuant to 8.9.4 NMAC or 8.9.5 NMAC;

(4) a licensee or applicant required to obtain a background check pursuant to 8.9.4 NMAC or 8.9.5 NMAC must receive either a notice of provisional employment or background check eligibility prior to beginning employment. Applicants working after receipt of a notice of provisional employment shall at all times be under direct physical supervision until receiving background check eligibility. Upon completion of Paragraph 2 of this subsection, a notice of provisional employment decision will be provided to the child care center or home within five days unless the BCU determines there is good cause shown for an extension; and

(5) no more than 45 days shall have passed since the date of the initial application unless the BCU documents good cause shown for an extension.

B. With the exception of the provision under 8.9.4.19 NMAC and 8.9.5.11 NMAC, if a direct provider of care has a break in employment or transfers employment more than 180 days after the date of an eligibility letter from the BCU, the direct provider of care must re-comply with 8.9.6.10 NMAC. A direct provider of care may transfer employment, as permitted by 8.9.4.19 NMAC and 8.9.5.11 NMAC, or for a period of 180 days after the date of an eligibility letter from the BCU without complying with 8.9.6.10 NMAC only if the direct provider of care submits a preliminary application that meets the following conditions:

(1) the direct provider of care submits a statement swearing under penalty of perjury that he or she has not been arrested or charged with any crimes, has not been an alleged perpetrator of abuse or neglect and has not been a respondent in a domestic violence petition;

(2) the direct provider of care submits an application that describes the prior and subsequent places of employment, registration or certification with sufficient detail to allow the BCU to determine if further background checks or a new application is necessary; and

(3) the BCU determines within 15 days that the direct provider of care's prior background check is sufficient for the employment or position the direct provider of care is going to take.

[8.9.6.11 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

8.9.6.12 PROHIBITIONS:

A. Any ECECD licensee who violates these regulations is subject to revocation, suspension, sanctions, denial of licensure, certification, or registration or termination of participation in any other program within the scope of these regulations.

B. Licensure, certification, registration or participation in any other program within the scope of these regulations is subject to receipt by the licensing authority of a satisfactory background check for the licensee or the licensee's administrator.

C. Except as provided in 8.9.6.13 NMAC below, licensure, certification, registration or participation in any other program within the scope of these regulations may not be granted by the licensing authority if a background check of the licensee or the licensee's administrator reveals an unreasonable risk.

D. A licensee may not retain employment, volunteer service or contract with any direct provider of care for whom a background check reveals an unreasonable risk. The BCU shall deliver one copy of the notice of unreasonable risk to the facility or program by U.S. mail, facsimile transmission, secure (or encrypted) e-mail or hand delivery, and to the licensing authority by facsimile transmission, secure (or encrypted) e-mail or hand delivery.

E. A licensee shall be in violation of these regulations if it retains a direct provider of care for more than ten working days following the issuing of a notice of background check denial for failure to respond by the BCU.

F. A licensee shall be in violation of these regulations if it retains any direct provider of care inconsistent with Subsection A of 8.9.6.11 NMAC.

G. A licensee shall be in violation of these regulations if it hires, contracts with, uses in volunteer service, or retains any direct provider of care for whom information received from any source including the direct provider of care, indicates the provider of care poses an unreasonable risk to care recipients.

H. Any firm, person, corporation, individual or other entity that violates this section shall be subject to appropriate sanctions up to and including immediate emergency revocation of license or registration pursuant to the regulations applicable to that entity or termination of participation in any other program within the scope of these regulations.

[8.9.6.12 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

8.9.6.13 ARRESTS, CONVICTIONS AND REFERRALS:

A. For the purpose of these regulations, the following information shall result in a conclusion that the applicant is an unreasonable risk:

(1) a conviction for a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and the criminal conviction directly relates to whether the applicant can provide a safe, responsible and morally positive setting for care recipients;

(2) a conviction for a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and the criminal conviction does not directly relate to whether the applicant can provide a safe, responsible and morally positive setting for care recipients if the department determines that the applicant so convicted has not been sufficiently rehabilitated;

(3) a conviction, regardless of the degree of the crime or the date of the conviction, of trafficking in controlled substances, criminal sexual penetration or related sexual offenses or child abuse;

(4) a substantiated referral, regardless of the date, for sexual abuse or for a substantiation of abuse or neglect relating to a failure to protect against sexual abuse;

(5) the applicant's child is in New Mexico's Children, Youth, and Families Department (CYFD) or another state's custody; or

(6) a registration, or a requirement to be registered, on a state sex offender registry or repository or the national sex offender registry established under the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006.

B. A disqualifying conviction may be proven by:

- (1) a copy of the judgment of conviction from the court;
- (2) a copy of a plea agreement filed in court in which a defendant admits guilt;
- (3) a copy of a report from the federal bureau of investigation, criminal information services division, or the national criminal information center, indicating a conviction;
- (4) a copy of a report from the state of New Mexico, department of public safety, or any other agency of any state or the federal government indicating a conviction;
- (5) any writing by the applicant indicating that such person has been convicted of the disqualifying offense, provided, however, that if this is the sole basis for denial, the applicant shall be given an opportunity to show that the applicant has successfully completed or is pending completion of a conditional discharge for the disqualifying conviction.

C. If a background check shows pending charges for a felony offense, any misdemeanor offense involving domestic violence, child abuse, any other misdemeanor offense of moral turpitude, or an arrest but no disposition for any such crime, there shall be a determination of unreasonable risk if a conviction as charged would result in a determination of unreasonable risk.

D. If a background check shows a pending CYFD child protective services referral or any other investigation of abuse or neglect by ECECD, CYFD, or any other state or federal agency with authority to investigate, there shall be a determination of unreasonable risk.

E. If a background check shows that an applicant has an outstanding warrant, there shall be a determination of unreasonable risk.

[8.9.6.13 NMAC - N, 11/01/2022]

8.9.6.14 UNREASONABLE RISK:

A. The BCU may, in its discretion, use all reasonably reliable information about an applicant and weigh the evidence about an applicant to determine whether the applicant poses an unreasonable risk to care recipients. The BCU may also consult with legal staff, treatment, assessment or other professionals in the process of determining whether the cumulative weight of credible evidence establishes unreasonable risk.

B. In determining whether an applicant poses an unreasonable risk, the BCU need not limit its reliance on formal convictions or substantiated referrals, but nonetheless must only rely on evidence with indicia of reliability such as:

- (1) reliable disclosures by the applicant or a victim of abuse or neglect;
- (2) domestic violence orders that allowed an applicant notice and opportunity to be heard and that prohibits or prohibited them from injuring, harassing or contacting another;
- (3) circumstances indicating the applicant is or has been a victim of domestic violence;
- (4) child or adult protection investigative evidence that indicates a likelihood that an applicant engaged in inappropriate conduct but there were reasons other than the credibility of the evidence to not substantiate; or
- (5) any other evidence with similar indicia of reliability.

8.9.6.15 REHABILITATION PETITION: Any applicant whom the BCU concludes is an unreasonable risk on any basis other than those described at Paragraphs (1), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of Subsection A of 8.9.6.13 NMAC, may submit to the BCU a rehabilitation petition describing with specificity all information that tends to demonstrate that the applicant is not an unreasonable risk. The petition may include, but need not be limited to, a description of what actions the applicant has taken subsequent to any events revealed by the background check to reduce the risk that the same or a similar circumstance will recur.

8.9.6.16 ELIGIBILITY SUSPENSIONS, REINSTATEMENTS AND REVOCATIONS:

A. An applicant's background check eligibility may be suspended for the following:

- (1) an arrest or criminal charge for any felony offense, any misdemeanor offense involving domestic violence, child abuse or any other misdemeanor offense of moral turpitude if a conviction as charged would result in a determination of unreasonable risk;

(2) a pending CYFD child protective services referral or any other investigation of abuse or neglect by ECECD, CYFD, or any other state or federal agency with authority to investigate allegations of abuse or neglect;

(3) an outstanding warrant; or

(4) any other reason that creates an unreasonable risk determination pursuant to these regulations.

B. It is the duty of the administrator of a facility or the licensee and the background check eligibility holder, upon learning of any of the above, to notify the licensing authority immediately. Failure to immediately notify the licensing authority may result in the revocation of background check eligibility.

C. A suspension of background check eligibility shall have the same effect as a determination of unreasonable risk until the matter is resolved and eligibility is affirmatively reinstated by the BCU.

D. Background check eligibility may be reinstated or revoked as follows:

(1) If the applicant can provide information relating to the disqualifying criminal charge that would show that a criminal conviction as charged would not lead to an unreasonable risk;

(2) If the matter causing the suspension is resolved within six months of the suspension, the applicant may provide documentation to the BCU showing how the matter was resolved and requesting reinstatement of background check eligibility. After review, the BCU may reinstate background check eligibility or may revoke eligibility. If, the applicant's eligibility is revoked, the applicant may appeal the revocation.

(3) If the matter causing the suspension is resolved after six months of the suspension, the applicant may reapply for clearance for the same licensee by submitting an electronic fingerprint submission receipt and the required forms. After review, the BCU may reinstate background check eligibility or may revoke eligibility. If the applicant's eligibility is revoked, the applicant may appeal the revocation.

8.9.6.17 APPEAL RIGHTS:

A. Denials: Any applicant who is found ineligible after completion of background check may request an administrative review from ECECD. The request for an administrative review shall be in writing and the applicant shall cause the BCU to receive it within 15 days of the date of the BCU's written notice of a determination of unreasonable risk. If the request is mailed, three days are added after the period would otherwise expire. The administrative review shall be completed by a review of the record by a hearing officer designated by the cabinet secretary. The hearing officer's review is limited to:

(1) whether the BCU's conclusion of unreasonable risk is supported by any section of these regulations; and

(2) whether the applicant has been erroneously identified as a person with a relevant conviction or substantiated referral. The review will be completed on the record presented to the hearing officer and includes the applicant's written request for an administrative review and other relevant evidence provided by the applicant. The hearing officer conducts the administrative review and submits a recommendation to the cabinet secretary no later than 60 days after the date the request for administrative review is received unless ECECD and the applicant agree otherwise.

B. Suspensions and revocations: A previously cleared applicant whose eligibility has been suspended or revoked may appeal that decision to ECECD and shall be entitled to a hearing pursuant to ECECD's identified administrative hearing regulations. The request for appeal shall be in writing and the applicant shall cause the BCU to receive it within 15 days of the date of the BCU's written notice of suspension. If the request is mailed, three days are added after the period would otherwise expire.
